

Mystic Mountain is Western Pennsylvania’s ideal learning environment for first-time skiers, with 25 acres of fun, short lines, friendly trails and experienced instructors.

If winter sports are your thing, then you are in luck! Downhill skiing and snowboarding are available on six slopes at Mystic Mountain, with slope difficulty ranging from beginner to expert. Mystic Mountain has a 300 foot vertical drop, three lifts, and is well lit for nighttime skiing.

Our professional staff is available for private lessons and ready to assist those in need. Mystic Mountain also has rental equipment available, leaving no excuses for mastering the mountain!

SKI & SNOWBOARD LESSONS

Mystic Mountain offers a variety of programs for all ages. The Snow Sports Academy employs the finest professional, PSIA-certified instructors from all over the world. Our instructors offer skiing, snowboarding and cross-country ski lessons. The only way to learn a lifelong sport is by taking lessons. It is highly recommended for guests to book a lesson with one of our professionals. Private lessons are available every day Mystic Mountain is open, by reservation. Lessons are available for any age, but it is recommended that children be at least four years old.

PRIVATE LESSONS

Teaching and individual lessons are not offered in camp. Children need to be prepared with proper waterproof skiing clothing, hat and gloves. All prices include use of rental of skis and boots. Please allow 35 minutes for registration during the holidays. The junior programs are supervised by a highly professional team of instructors, and the goal is to improve the ability of every participant. Prices reflect the cost of the lesson, taxes and gratuity for the instructors.

THE SLOPES OF MYSTIC MOUNTAIN

● BEGINNER HILL

Large beginner bowl area: This slope is perfect for skiers and snowboarders who are working on their stopping and turning abilities.

● GERONIMO

The longest slope at one-half mile in length: By taking this slope, guests are utilizing the easiest way to the bottom of Mystic Mountain.

A laser-guided system was used to cut this beautiful trail, which is excellent for learning to ski or snowboard.

■ GRIZZLY RUN

A step up from Geronimo with more thrilling terrain for those new intermediates: This slope has an incredible view of the Laurel Highlands.

◆ NOSE DIVE

A gorgeous expert trail for those that can tackle Grizzly Run: This slope is a short, but steep descent, which exits onto Geronimo Slope.

◆ CLIFF HANGER

When your stomach meets your throat, you're halfway down this expert trail.

◆ SHOWBOAT

This trail is located under the quad chair lift, and provides onlookers with an opportunity to watch skiers and riders devour this challenging expert trail.

TERRAIN PARK

The terrain park is great for beginners to learn the skills needed to be successful skiers. Located on the right side of Grizzly Run, it includes:

- One 16' flat box
- One 24' flat box
- One 14' down flat rail
- One 16' down cannon rail
- One 24' rainbow box
- Snow made jumps

GENERAL INFORMATION

The season starts December 18, 2020, and ends March 14, 2021.
